

Princess Elizabeth Rose

Princess Elizabeth of the Golden city was getting ready to see the suitors. She went to the dressing room and put on her most beautiful dress and then went out.

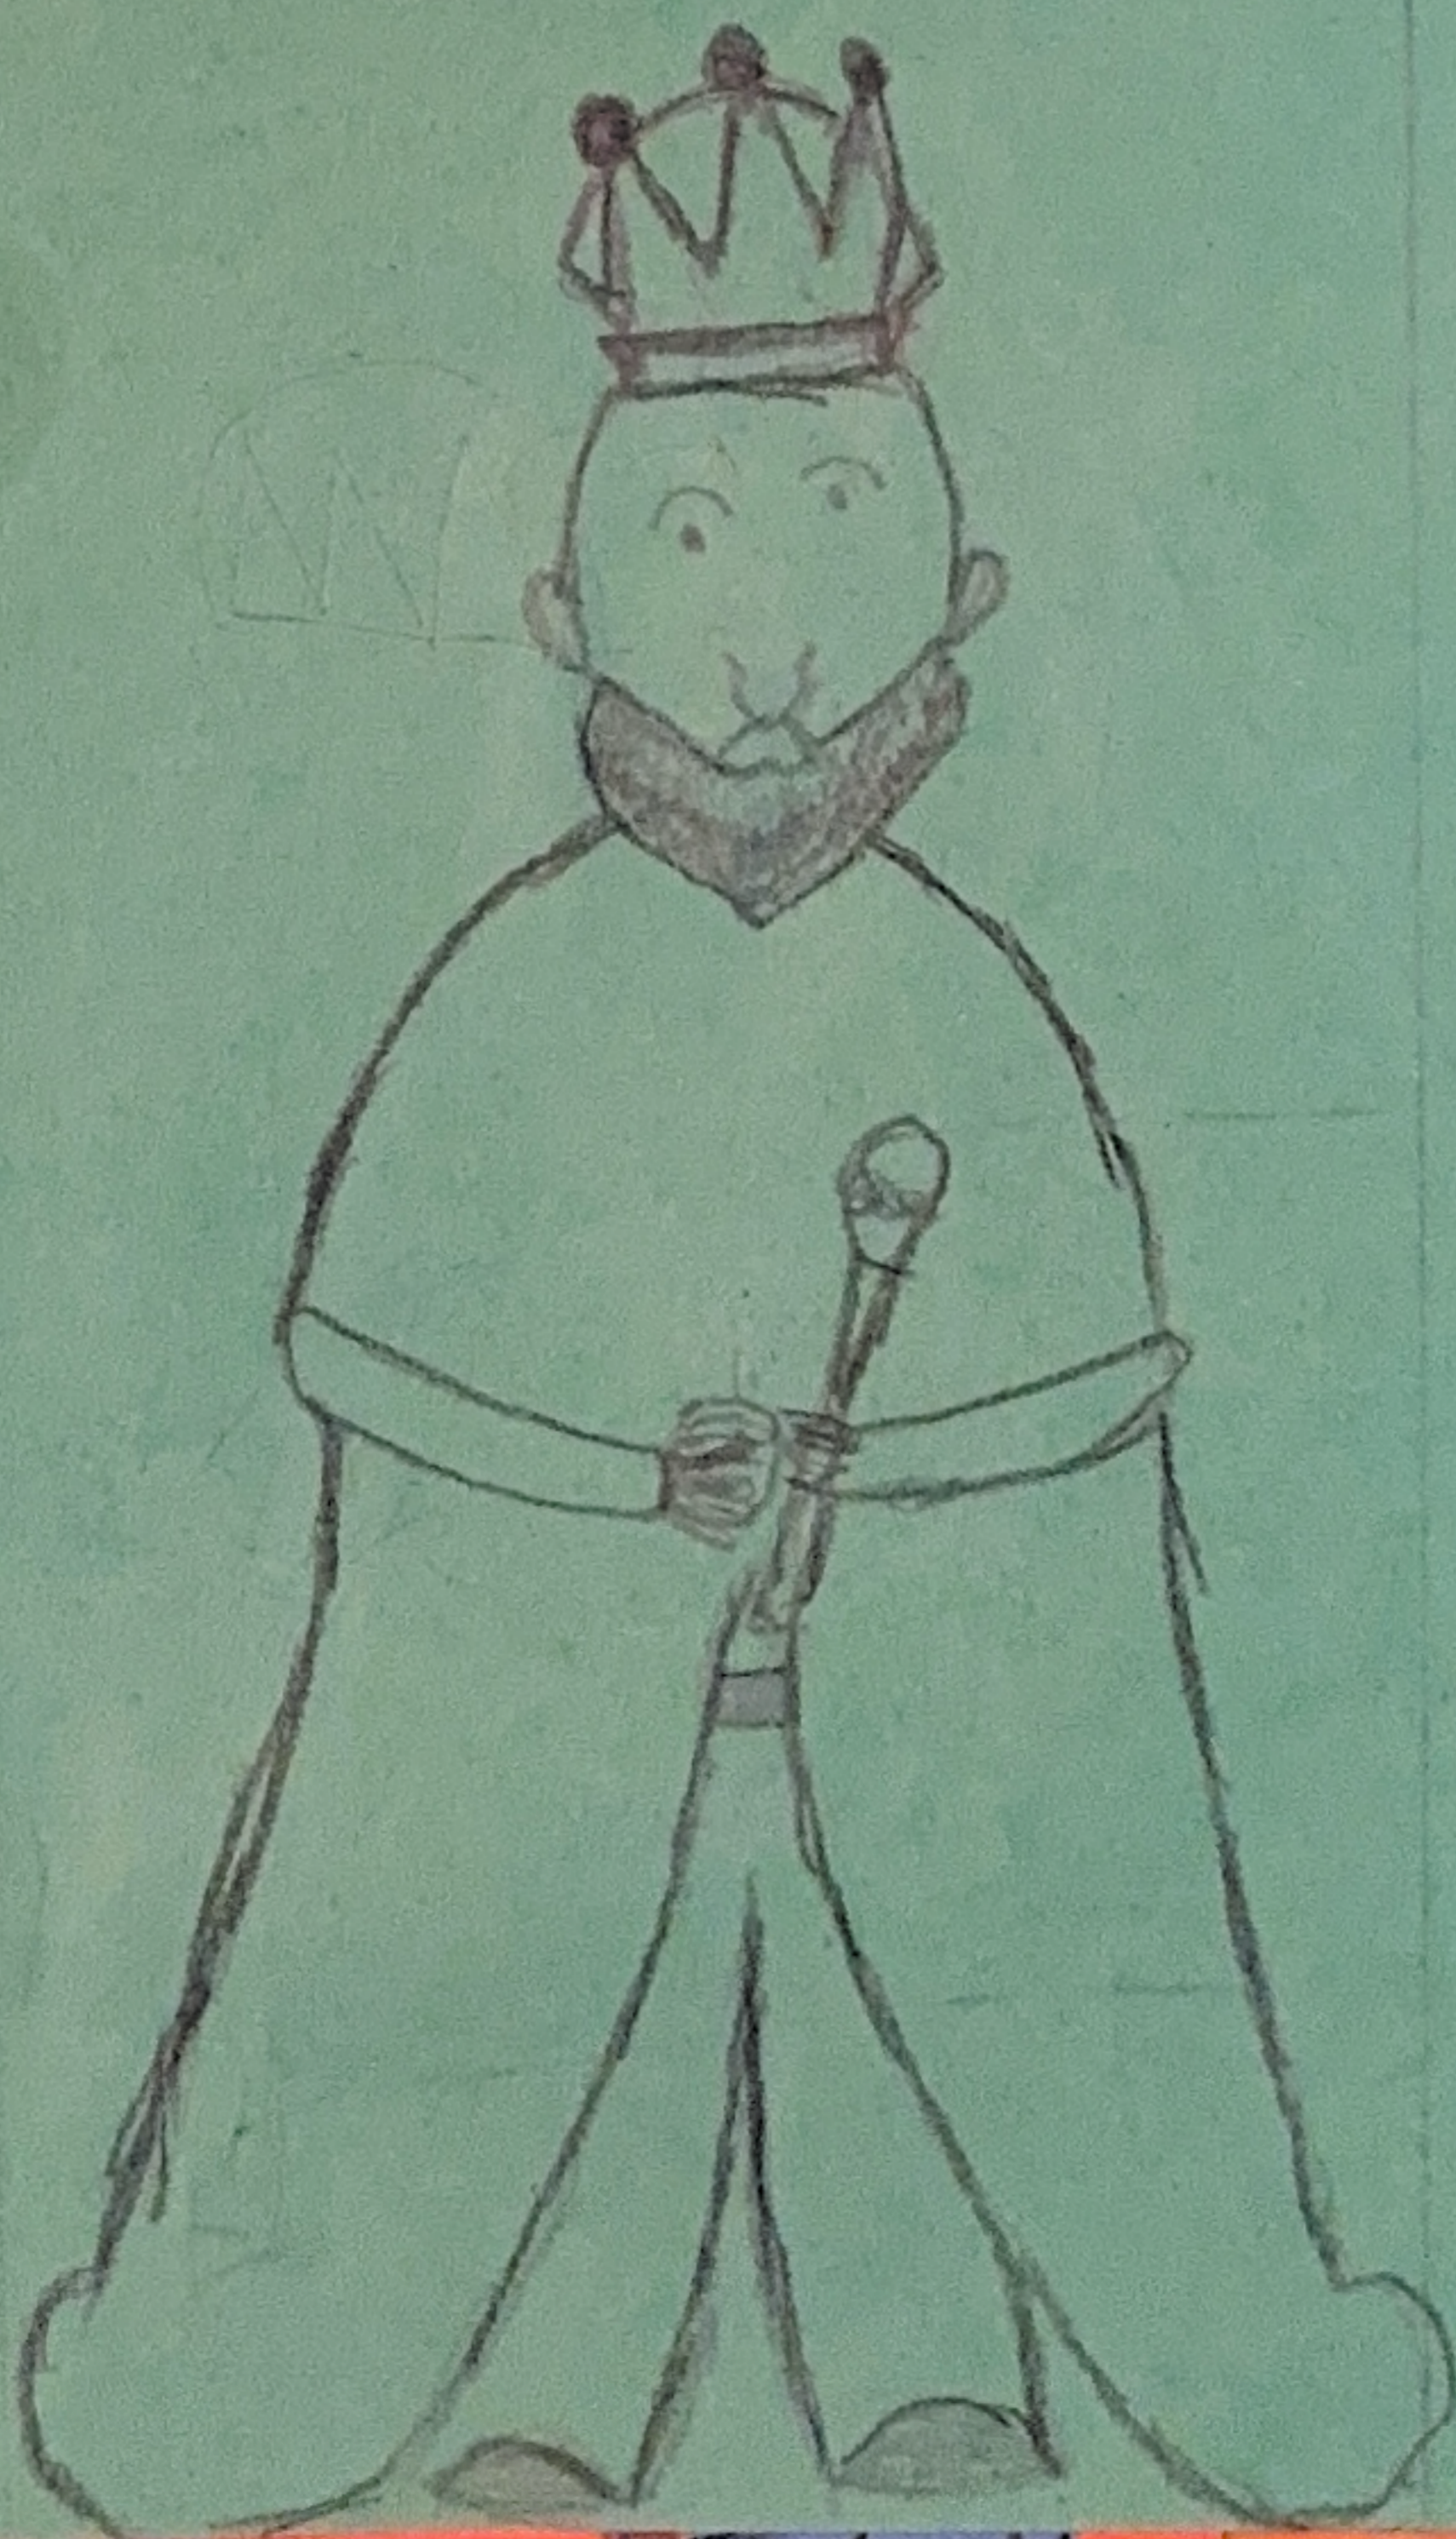

After seeing the suitors, Princess Elizabeth went to see her father. "Dad, I can't find any suitable prince." The king said "when I was young I too, was looking for the perfect queen. Many people came to visit me but none of them were the right fit. Some of them talked too much and were on their phones too much. I told my father I couldn't find the right Queen and he told me how he couldn't find the right Queen. I think you should look outside the city to find the perfect prince. The princess was nervous but said OK. It was January 16 and her birthday was the 20th, which is when she needed to find her prince. The next day, Princess Elizabeth and her guards left the city.

After seeing the suitors, Princess Elizabeth went to see her father. "Dad, I can't find any suitable prince." The king said "when I was young I too used to look for the perfect queen. Many of them were the same and were on their knees but I couldn't find the right one. The right Queen was in a far away city to find the perfect prince. I was OK. It was on the 20th, which is today, Princess Elizabeth found the perfect prince.
